

Dr Priya Nair

Specialist Doctor – General & Acute Medicine (Medical Registrar, RACP Advanced Trainee)

021 555 0129 priya.nair@email.com Hamilton, Waikato NZ Resident – full work rights

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Dedicated specialist-trainee physician with 3.5 years’ experience in acute and general medicine within Te Whatu Ora – Health New Zealand. Skilled in managing complex multi-system illness, leading ward rounds and supporting acute admissions with sound clinical reasoning. Experienced in audit, medical education and quality improvement. Committed to equity for Māori and Pacific patients, collaborative multidisciplinary care and the ongoing development of the specialist workforce in Aotearoa New Zealand.

REGISTRATION &
CREDENTIALS

Medical Council of NZ	Registered – General Scope	Annual Practising Certificate	Current
Training programme	RACP Advanced Training – General Medicine	Life support	ALS & ACLS – current
Medical indemnity	Current	Vocational scope	Application upon Fellowship

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

Feb 2025 – Present	Medical Registrar – General Medicine & Acute Assessment Te Whatu Ora – Health New Zealand, Waikato Hospital - Lead the acute medical take and supervise junior doctors; assess, investigate and manage 25–30 acute admissions per shift. - Provide specialty consultations and after-hours medical registrar cover for wards, ED and the High Dependency Unit. - Coordinate family meetings, advance care planning and discharge planning with allied health and primary care.
Feb 2023 – Jan 2025	Medical Registrar – Rotating (Cardiology, Respiratory, Endocrinology, Geriatrics) Te Whatu Ora – Health New Zealand, Waikato - Managed inpatients and outpatient clinics across four subspecialties, including heart failure, COPD, diabetes and frailty. - Performed procedures including pleural aspiration, lumbar puncture and central venous access; interpreted ECG, echocardiography and spirometry. - Presented at weekly multidisciplinary meetings and morbidity & mortality reviews.
Jan 2022 – Jan 2023	Senior Resident Medical Officer – General Medicine Te Whatu Ora – Health New Zealand, Waikato Completed the PGY3 rotation across medicine, ED and ICU, achieving entry to RACP Basic Training.

EDUCATION

2024	Fellowship Basic Training – Royal Australasian College of Physicians (RACP) – completed, incl. Written & Clinical Examinations
2015 – 2020	Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBChB) – University of Auckland

AUDIT & RESEARCH

- Quality improvement project: reducing time to antibiotics in suspected sepsis in the acute medical unit – presented at Waikato Hospital Grand Rounds (2025).
- Clinical audit: adherence to NZ guidelines for heart failure discharge medication; findings adopted into the ward discharge checklist (2024).
- Poster presentation: Frailty assessment in acute medical admissions – Australasian Society for Geriatric Medicine Conference (2024).

TEACHING & LEADERSHIP

- Weekly bedside teaching for house officers and medical students; facilitator, simulation-based acute care course (2024 – present).
- Registrar representative, Medical Education Committee; Te Tiriti and cultural safety champion on the acute medicine team.

MEMBERSHIPS & LANGUAGES

Royal Australasian College of Physicians (Trainee) · NZ Medical Association · Resident Doctors’ Association · English (fluent), Malayalam (fluent), Hindi (conversational), Te reo Māori (basic)

REFEREES

Available on request – including Clinical Director, General Medicine and RACP Supervisor of Training.